THE OPTIC COLLECTION

Yeah, you read that title right. If you've ridden the Blade, then you know it belongs in a league of its own, so for 2024, we're simplifying things from the Blade Optic Collection, to the Optic Collection.

Born from LINE's history of pushing freeride skiing in a new direction, the Optic Collection continues to break the mold of traditional metal-laminate ski design. These aren't your ordinary, dull metal laminate freeride skis. They're LINE Freeride skis, and they charge like a freeride ski but play like a freestyle ski, and with four different waist widths to choose from, including an all-new Optic 88, there's a lot to love about the Optic Collection. Complete with our unique Gas Petal Metal Overdrive™ layup, the Optic Collection was created for pedal to the metal ripping from the firmest of corduroy to the deepest of pow. Set your sights down the mountain, kick it into overdrive, and experience freeride through a new lens on the Optic Collection.

OPTIC 114

THE VISION COLLECTION

Vision can change over time, whether about one's vision/ ideologies, a brand's vision, or even your eyesight. In the case of the Vision Collection, our vision changed the day we tested the new Optic Collection. From the 88 to the 114, the Optic Collection skied so well that we knew we had to revamp the Vision Collection to match. We took the shape of the Optic 96, 104, and 114, removed the metal, increased the rocker, added a brand-new THC layup and the new Vision Collection was born. These changes resulted in incredibly lightweight yet stable skis for the uphill, with the versatility and performance that the Optic footprint offers for the downhill.

Designed with our new Bio-Resin Tech, the Vision Collection doesn't just feature improved skiing performance; it also features new environmentally friendly materials.

VISION 114

OVERVIEW:

When the storms are rolling, and the snow is flying, the all-new Vision 114 is here. From bell-to-bell resort laps to far-out touring missions, the Vision 114 combines a lightweight, freestyle feel with a stable, high-performance chassis. Complete with a new and improved THC layout of Flax, Carbon, and Fiberglass paired with Thick Cut Sidewalls and our new Bio-Resin, the Vision 114 offers a beefed-up ride that will float and butter through pow, arc on groomers and fight fatigue on the skin track.
